

To the Friends of Mort Smiley -

Sent out Tuesday May 12:

As many of you are already aware, we lost our dear Mort Monday night May 11, 2009 due to complications of pneumonia. He died around 9 PM, surrounded by family and friends, including his oldest friend from Phoenix of whom he spoke often, his sponsor and several of his sponsees.

Mort knew we were all there – his mind was clear, and he was ready to go. He touched so many lives, gave us all more than we can ever express, and will be sorely missed.

His son just let me know that the memorial will be on Sunday, May 31, 2 PM, at Temple Judea, which is at 5429 Lindley, just south of Burbank Blvd. in Tarzana

In lieu of flowers the family are setting up a memorial in the name of Mort Smiley with The Fulfillment Fund – a link to their site is below.

Hope to see you there, as we celebrate the life of a good, funny, brave, much-loved and much-loving man, who was of service to so many, touched us all and showed us how to live. As someone said on his last night, Mort had more best friends than most of us have acquaintances. . .and I am honored to have been one of them.
